

How to get involved!

Creating a corporate sponsorship

Step 1: Create the outline of a plan on how you think your company can get involved

Step 2: Work with your manager on a plan to put the plan in action

Step 3: Refine the plan in cooperation with other co workers and management. Consider a focus for your company to work on:

- A corporate mentoring program introducing students to the business world
- In school mentoring, aiming at assisting in both academic and social fields
- Simply academic mentoring aiming at helping a student's school performance and habits
- After-school or faith based mentoring go assist similar to groups like Big Brothers, Big Sisters

Step 4: Work with other people in the office to become mentors

Step 5: Conduct a background check to determine their eligibility to help

Step 6: Create a schedule to help your mentees. This could take about one to three hours per week

Step 7: Undergo training for all those involved
